- Chinese Language and Culture
- Classics
- East Asian Languages and Cultures
- French
- French International Studies and Business
- German
- Interdisciplinary Classical Civilizations
- Italian
- Russian
- Spanish
- Spanish International Studies and Business

WORLD LANGUAGES AND CULTURES CONCENTRATIONS

APPLIED LINGUISTICS (WLAL)

The Applied Linguistics concentration will help students comprehend a broad range of language-related issues to better understand how language functions both in the lives of individuals and in society. The coursework in this concentration will prepare students for a wide-range of career options, including pedagogical formation for language teaching domestically or internationally, cross-culture competency for careers in industry, and foundation knowledge in applied linguistics to be successful in graduate work in the field.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE CONCENTRATION IN APPLIED LINGUISTICS

TOTAL CONCENTRATION HOURS: 24

Concentration Core (6 hours)

Recommended Language Preparation:

Four semesters in any language or equivalent language competency prior to taking courses in the concentration.

- LIN 3010 Introduction to Linguistics
- LIN 4721 Second Language Acquisition (GCPC)

Concentration Electives (18 hours)

Research Opportunities

All undergraduate students in any degree program can participate in undergraduate research. There are a number of options to receive academic credit for a mentored research experience and to have the experience show on the official transcript. Students who wish to enroll in an undergraduate research course should consult with their academic advisor to understand how the credit will apply towards the degree requirements. If no credit is needed, students may be eligible to enroll in the 0-credit IDS 2912, IDS 4914 or IDH 4910 courses. These courses will not impact degree credits or GPA but will show on an official transcript and document the experience. The Office for Undergraduate Research will assist students in understanding the various course options.
