

“TEACHING WORLD LANGUAGES: PRACTICAL INSIGHTS”

November 14th

5:00-6:00p.m. CPR 459

ResearchOne
ONE UNIVERSITY : ONE COMMUNITY : ONE VISION

Phi Sigma Iota, the International Foreign Language Honor Society, is pleased to announce our guest speakers Mariam Manzur-Leiva and Chloe Savenko. The presenters will share their insights and personal experiences in teaching foreign languages focusing on practical ideas, teaching techniques and ACTFL standards used in the classroom to achieve proficiency. Join us in celebrating International Education Week at USF!

