

USF WORLD LANGUAGES RESEARCH COLLOQUIUM

Co-Sponsored by the USF chapter of Phi Sigma Iota, International Honor Society

WHEN: Friday, April 20, 2012

WHERE: USF Library (Grace Allen Room, Library Media Center 125D & 125E and LIB 201, 209, 309) and WLE Conference rooms

FEATURED SPEAKER: Stephan Schindler, "Transatlantic Rift: Europe Today"

SUBMISSIONS: Proposals will be accepted from graduate and advanced undergraduate students in World Language courses (past or present) and visiting scholars

Title and description due by March 19 (firm date)

Types of Presentations: Sessions of Research Papers, Round Table Discussions of Research, Poster Presentations (presentations may be in the Target Language or in English)

You may submit your title and description NOW to the appropriate organizer below!

Visiting Scholar Section: Stephan Schindler

Hispanic/Latino Section: Carlos Cano and Madeleine Camara

French Section: Christine Probes, Anne Latowsky and Kersuze Simeon-Jones

Linguistics Section: Camilla Vasquez and Amy Thompson

Classics Section: John Noonan, Ippokratis Kantzios and Ava Chitwood

Italian Section: Patrizia La Trecchia and Joanne Fralliciardi Lyon

Chinese Section: Eric Shepherd

German Section: Stefan Huber and Stephan Schindler

Hebrew Section: Rina Donchin

Mixed Section--Japanese, Modern Greek, Russian, Portuguese: Olga Oleynik

(See <http://languages.usf.edu/people/> for email addresses)

Lunch offered to participants!