

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION

“Think Transatlantic”

The United States and Germany in the 21st Century

Tuesday, November 27th, 2012

3pm—5pm

MSC 2708

<http://languages.usf.edu/thinktransatlantic/>

Sponsored by the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany and co-sponsored by the Department of World Languages at USF and USF World

Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany

Department of World Languages

Panelists:

- Elizabeth Strom (Director of the Office of Community Engagement and Associate Professor in the Department of Geography, Environment and Planning): “Building Better Cities: Transatlantic Lessons”
- Walter Andrusyszyn (Adjunct Professor, College of Business): “The Eurozone Crisis and the Challenge to German leadership in the EU”
- Heide Castañeda (Assistant Professor, Dept. of Anthropology): “The Interrelationship between Immigration and Health Care in US and German Policy”
- Stephan K. Schindler (Professor of German and Chair, Department of World Languages): “Subotić, Klinsi, & Co.: German-American Soccer Connections”
- Peter Funke (Assistant Professor, Department of Government & International Affairs) : “Social Movements in Europe and the US”

Please join us for our Closing Reception following the Roundtable from 5pm – 7pm also in MSC 2708.

Reception open to participants and audience members of roundtable discussion and essay contest participants.

For more information on reception contact
Claudine Boniec (cboniec@usf.edu).

For general information on the “Think Transatlantic” campaign and events contact
Dr. Margit Grieb (griber@usf.edu).